

THAILAND

For most golfers, Thailand is the golf mecca of Southeast Asia. With over 200 courses across Bangkok, Chiang Mai, Hua Hin, Pattaya and Phuket and many more places, this is the most developed golfing nation in the region.

Tourism Authority of Thailand

Adding to the Thai offerings at the SPH Golf-Takashimaya Golf & Travel Fair, the Tourism Authority of Thailand will feature even more courses within their Country Pavilion, including one of the most well-known courses in the country – Siam Country Club.

Over more than 10 years, The Old Course at Siam Country Club has hosted the very best golfers of the LPGA during the Honda LPGA Thailand, which concluded last month with South Korean Amy Yang claiming her fourth career victory. The Plantation and Waterside courses round up its 54-hole route.

Other golf clubs coming to the fair include Banyan Golf Club, Dusit Hotels & Resorts, Katathong Golf Resort & Spa, Riverdale Golf & Country Club, Springfield Royal Country Club and Summit Windmill Golf Club. – Booth C4

Chee Chan Golf Resort

Opened less than a year ago, and already winning the “World’s Best New Golf Course 2019” honour at the 6th Annual World Golf Awards, Chee Chan Golf Resort is inspired by the iconic Khao Chi Chan, the famous 110-metre golden carving of Buddha overlooks one of the newest additions to the Pattaya golf scene.

Designed by David Dale of Golfplan, the Par 72 course that spans across 550 rai (88 hectares) is the first in the region to utilise Zemet Zoysia grass, the secret behind its almost carpet-like fairways. Visit the fair and find out more about this special property sited within 30 minutes of the bustling city. – Booth E15

Hotel Baraquada Pattaya

Opened in 2015, the luxurious boutique hotel is one of many belonging to Sofitel’s MGallery Collection and is located just mere minutes from the beach.

In addition to its 72 rooms, the five-star hotel also features an in-house spa, an outdoor pool with lounging beds, restaurant with all-day dining, and a Sunset Lounge for cocktails while enjoying the twilight on Pattaya Bay. – Booth E21

Thana City Country Club

New life has been breathed into the country’s only Greg Norman-designed golf course following a multi-year redevelopment and rebranding exercise.

Chee Chan Golf Resort

Since 1993, Thana City has seen the likes of Vijay Singh, Ernie Els, and of course, Greg Norman, tee up at the club which has played hosts to numerous professional tournaments such as the national Thailand Open.

Today, Thana City Country Club is an all-round destination with a wide range of athletic, recreational and lifestyle facilities. – Booth E22

Renaissance Pattaya Resort & Spa

Renaissance Pattaya Resort & Spa

The first of its kind for the Marriott International-owned hotel chain in Pattaya, the Renaissance Pattaya Resort & Spa has just over 250 rooms that range from a 40 square metre Deluxe room, to a Beachfront Pool Villa that has direct pool access, a private jacuzzi and a king size bed within 285 square metres of space.

There are also two outdoor swimming pools, a well-equipped fitness centre with 24-hour access, a luxury spa, as well as Treasure Kids Club and its separate kids’ pool to keep the young ones entertained. – Booth E23

Swissôtel Bangkok Ratchada

Located in the heart of the Ratchadapisek district, the Swissôtel Bangkok Ratchada is a short 40-minute ride from Suvarnabhumi Airport and roughly an hour away from some of the best golf courses Thailand has to offer.

The 22-storey hotel features 407 rooms that span across seven different categories from Swiss Premier Rooms to the luxurious Presidential Suite.

Guests have a multitude of options when it comes to unwinding and relaxation. Apart from a landscaped swimming pool with sweeping views of the city, to an expansive StudioFit gym, there is also a full range of treatments to choose from at the Spa De Concorde. – Booth E23

Pattana Golf Club & Resort

Spanning over 400-acres, the country’s only multi-functional integrated sports resort houses three championship nine-hole courses – Andreas, Brookei, and Calypso – each presenting a unique characteristic and par 6 golf holes.

Catering to golf travellers, Pattana Golf Club & Resort features special stay and play packages which are ideal for solo golfers, or even a pair. – Booth E24

Pattana Golf Club & Resort

WIN AN ALL-EXPENSES PAID GOLFING ADVENTURE TO THAILAND!

From 16 March to 19 September 2019, the Tourism Authority of Thailand is giving away a trip for two to Chiang Mai, Thailand.

The all-expenses-paid trip includes return air tickets, land transfer, two-night accommodation with daily breakfast and an all-inclusive round at Alpine Golf Resort, Chiang Mai.

To enter the contest, golfers must submit at least two scorecards from a single trip to Thailand, with every additional scorecard increasing the chances of winning.

• Contest closes on 19 September 2019.
To enter, head to <https://bit.ly/2ETRo0Y>.
Terms & conditions apply.