

Asia is home to 60% of the world’s population...

and 2,300 different languages.

Curious? So are we.

At First Sentier Investors – the new name for First State Investments – curiosity is at the heart of all we do. It’s what shapes our investment philosophy and drives our active approach to investment management.

It also helps us navigate complexity. As one of the leading investors in Asian markets globally we have 50 years of proven on-the-ground experience, delivering sustainable opportunities to create and protect wealth.

At First State Investments, we understand the complexities and the potential of this diverse market. As First Sentier Investors, nothing has changed.
